SESSIONS

9:00 - 10:00AM

Amy Herman - "The Art of Perception: Seeing What Matters"

Are you looking closely? Visual educator Amy Herman explains how to use art to enhance your powers of perception and find connections where they may not be apparent. Learn the techniques Herman uses to train Navy SEALs, doctors and crime scene investigators to convert observable details into actionable knowledge with this insightful talk.

Daniel Kaniewski - "Ready and Resilient"

Dr. Daniel Kaniewski will describe why building national resilience requires meaningful investment, cultural change, and shared responsibilities across all levels of government, the private sector, and society as a whole. He will share potential solutions to address the many risks we face.

12:30 - 1:30PM

Stephanie Decker - "Courage in the Storm"

As an average spring shower turned deadly, Stephanie Decker found herself faced with a split second, life-altering dilemma that most people will never have to experience. A category 4 tornado was speeding toward her home. As she scrambled to rush her children to safety, her home began to collapse all around her. Shielding her son and daughter with her body she moved back and forth to prevent bricks from hitting her children as her legs were crushed in the debris. Gone as quickly as it arrived, the tornado had rendered her helpless and bleeding in a huge pile of rubble. With tremendous courage and the determination to survive, Stephanie prayed as she issued a heartfelt message to her children on her cell phone. This was not the end for her however, it was an incredible new beginning.

2:00 - 3:00PM

Major General Johanna Clyborn - "Leadership Out Front – Leadership from the Heart"

How do leaders lead in trying times? Leadership concepts to consider as you set out on your own developmental path no matter where you are in your journey in life. Leadership consideration of caring for those who serve, while not losing oneself.
