FEATURED KEYNOTES

Shaun Floerke - "Resilience in Challenging Times"

Shaun Floerke served as a district court judge in Duluth Minnesota for over sixteen years. He retired from the bench on January 8, 2021, took a weekend off, and started as President and CEO of the Duluth Superior Area Community Foundation. He is passionate about action in our communities that makes a real difference and moving in respect, dignity, and hope. He travels extensively nationally and beyond teaching system professionals and community members how to understand trauma and how to do better for themselves and on behalf of others.

Katy Smith - "Community Immunity: What We Learned About Human Infrastructure In A Pandemic"

Are we there yet? Welcome to the other side of our shared, yet remarkably isolated, global pandemic experience. Join us as we take a light-hearted look at one person's new perspective on community immunity and what we can all take as "lessons learned" moving forward.

Carly Posey - "Anticipating the Unthinkable - Sandy Hook Shooting 2012"

Carly is the Mission Director for "The I Love You Guys" Foundation. Carly tells her story of no one being prepared for what happened inside Sandy Hook Elementary School on December 14, 2012. She shares her perspective on the events and how a community can be proactive and be prepared for the unthinkable. Carly focuses on the recovery and mental health of her and her family. Carly shares how she and her husband are helping their four children, recover and turn the negative events into life-long resiliency.

Luke Soderling - "Inspired by Our Struggles"

Luke Soderling, a local from Virginia MN, was the winner of the 60-day survival challenge on the Discovery Channel called The Wheel. Luke shares his solo survival in 6 different locations in Central South America and Patagonia. He shares how to take one day at a time, find things to be thankful for and how to pursue your purpose.
